

The title page is framed by an elaborate border. At the top center is a coat of arms with a shield divided into four quarters, featuring three fleurs-de-lis and three lions. Above the shield is a crown and a crest with a lion. The shield is surrounded by a scroll with the motto 'DIEU ET MON DROIT'. On either side of the coat of arms are two figures, possibly angels or saints, seated and holding instruments. The border is filled with intricate scrollwork, floral motifs, and various figures, including a lion at the bottom left and a griffin at the bottom right. The text is centered within the frame.
