

An. Christi.
285.
Arnobius.

S. ARNOBIUS

Sixt. Senen.
Biblioth. sanct.
lib. 4. p. 201.

As by Country an African, Hee was eminent in the Church of God, in the Reigne of Dioclesian the Emperour, and professed Rhetorike with the applause of all men in a certain Citie of Africk, called Sicca. Amongst many other excellent Scholers to whom he read daily, the most famous for wit and learning was Lactantius, there are many things which doe greatly set forth the praise of this Arnobius, though many pens have striven to fully, or at least to lessen this mans good name; and to cast aspersions, and make suspicions of his Writings: for who can in the first place, but ingenuously confesse him