

S. PROSPER.

An. Christi
445.
Sanctus Prosper.

THis famous Writer was of the same time with Hilarius Arelatensis, and was the Amanuensis to Leo; His parentage is not amongst the Church Historians fully knowne, and therefore not to be mentioned; but certainly they were both of abilitie and religiously carefull, because their sonne had such vertuous education, some say that hee was Bishop of Rhegium, a Citie of Emilia in Italie; others doe hold that hee was Bishop of Rhegium in Gaule. Cardinall Bellarmino doth in his Ecclesiasticall Writers, suspect the former opinion, as not consonant to truth, and gives two reasons for his assercion; for hee

Card. Bellar. de scrip. Eccles.
pag. 98.