

An. Christi
1071.
Sanctus
Theophylactus.

THEOPHILACTVS .

His birth place of this Father was the famous City of Constantinople, which once was the glory of the Roman Empire, and the bulwarke of Christendome against the Turkes, but by fatall divisions of Princes, and Christians among themselves, it is now the seat and residence of the Grand Signior, the arch enemy of the Christians. I do not reade anything of his parents, what sort or condition they were of, neither is it declared by Historians, it seemes that this Theophylact had liberall education, or else hee would not have beene admitted to such dignity in the Church of God, nor trusted with such