

An. Christi

1080.

SanctusAnselmus.

ANSELMVS .

THat the Reader may reape the more satisfaction, concerning this famous Father of the Church, St. Anselmus, who was Arch-Bishop of Canterbury, I thinke it very fit to speake something of his Country and Parents. His fathers name was Gundulphus, and his mothers name was Ermerberga, both of them well and nobly descended, and both of them abounding with wealth, lived in the holy state of wedlocke a long time, in the City Augusta. Which City lying on the confines of Burgundy, and of the Longobards, was the birth-place of this noble Matron: and she made Gundulphus of a stranger a Citizen of the same place: