PETER LOMBARD

HEaven hath been pleased to send many famous Divines into the world, who, like Embassadors, coming from our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, have expounded the Gospell of Salvation, and defended it from the schismaticall interpretation of Hereticks. As therefore Solomon saith, memoria justorum cum laudibus, the memory of the just is pretious and praise-worthy: it must needs follow, that the praises of these deceased holy Fathers, will encourage others to give God thanks for raising up such worthy instruments in his Church, and also in their lives and conversations to follow their example.
